

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT INFORMATION

Maui Youth and Family Services
Robin G. Pilus, Development Director
First Hawaiian Bank
Brandt Farias (808) 525-6112

MAUI YOUTH AND FAMILY SERVICES RECEIVES $5,000 GRANT FROM FIRST
HAWAIIAN BANK FOUNDATION

(Honolulu, Hawaii, April 28, 2006) – Maui Youth and Family Services has been awarded a grant of $5,000 from First Hawaiian Bank Foundation, the charitable arm of First Hawaiian Bank to assist the organization in developing a comprehensive technology plan.

Maui Youth & Family Services, Inc. has been carrying out its mission to build better lives with Hawaii's families for nearly three decades. An accredited, licensed, private, non-profit, community-based, family service agency, MYFS has been accomplishing its mission through a comprehensive continuum of wellness, prevention and treatment programs carried out with professionalism, integrity and excellence. The agency began as an emergency youth shelter created by the County of Maui in 1978.

“Developing a technology plan will offer MYFS an opportunity to proactively identify areas of technological possibility to augment existing programs with forward thinking solutions for delivering services to MYFS' growing client base and contribute to the hallmarks of professionalism, integrity and excellence, said Gail Gnazzo, MYFS CEO.

“We're pleased to support Maui Youth and Family Services and aid them in their development of a technology plan,” said Sharon Shiroma Brown, senior vice president of First Hawaiian Bank and president of First Hawaiian Bank Foundation.

First Hawaiian Bank Foundation is the charitable arm of First Hawaiian Bank. During 2005 the foundation and bank contributed $2.9 million to more than 330 non-profit organizations. The foundation funds educational opportunities, access to health care, services for children and youth, human service need and the many ways that the arts enrich our lives.

First Hawaiian bank ($11.6 billion assets has 61 branches in Hawaii, Guam and Saipan. Founded in 1858, it is Hawaii's oldest and largest bank.

###